WOL3D India Ltd Unveils New Logo as Part of Brand Evolution

Mumbai, India—February 25, 2025 – WOL3D India Ltd, a pioneering force in the 3D printing industry, proudly announces the launch of its new logo, marking a significant milestone in the company's journey of innovation and growth. This rebranding initiative aligns with WOL3D's commitment to enhancing its market presence and reflects its evolution as a forward-thinking leader in 3D printing technology.

Listed on NSE Emerge, WOL3D has consistently established benchmarks in the Indian 3D printing industry. It provides cutting-edge solutions and makes 3D printing accessible to both businesses and individuals. The updated logo embodies the company's core values of innovation, excellence, and customer-centricity while reinforcing its dynamic and futuristic vision.

Regarding the change, Rahul Chandalia, MD and CEO of WOL3D India Ltd, stated, “Our new logo represents a fresh and modern identity that resonates with our mission to revolutionize the 3D printing ecosystem in India. This transformation is a testament to our unwavering commitment to technological advancement, quality, and customer satisfaction.”

The redesigned logo harmonizes the company's rich legacy with its vision for the future. Its sleek, contemporary aesthetic symbolizes growth, adaptability, and a bold step forward into the next phase of its journey. As WOL3D expands its footprint, the new branding will bolster its position as a trailblazer in the industry.

The rebranding initiative comes when the company is witnessing accelerated growth and increased adoption of 3D printing across various sectors. Customers, partners, and stakeholders can expect the same dedication to service and innovation that has defined WOL3D's success.
